Listening skills are very important for reading success. Children must fine-tune their listening skills to enable them to differentiate between words that sound alike such as "cat" verses "hat" and to recognize words with the same beginning sound. You can help by reading books that rhyme or books that contain words that begin with the same sound such as letter books.

30 minute and 1 hour students

Suggestions for Reinforcement of speech sounds:

- Make up silly songs or rhymes that contain the targeted speech sound.
- Play a categories game. Name a category (food, colors, candy, toys) and have your child name as many things within that category as he/she can with their target sound.

Reminders

- *Please bring in all paper work to be signed
- *Drive SLOWLY in school parking lot.
- *Check folders EVERYDAY!
- *Pick up homework on Mondays or Tuesdays

Please bring items for treasure box!!!
